MEDIA RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Abterra strengthens Board with appointment of Miss Cai Suirong as Strategic Business Director

Singapore, 11 February 2010 – Abterra Ltd., (“Abterra”, or the “Group”), an emerging supply chain manager of resources and minerals in Asia Pacific, is pleased to announce the appointment of Miss Cai Suirong as an Executive Director. She will assume the role of Strategic Business Director from 1st March 2010 and will oversee the Group’s strategic business development in China and Thailand.

Being a veteran of the coke and coal industry for more than 20 years, Miss Cai has established concrete business networks in China and Thailand. Back in the early 1980s, Miss Cai handled the distribution of foundry pig iron and coke for a company in Thailand. In the mid 1990s, Miss Cai joined Tianjin General Nice Coke & Chemicals Co., Ltd. (“GNCC”) in Tianjin, China, where she expanded the company’s metallurgy coke business. Under her leadership, GNCC became one of the first private companies to be awarded export quotas for coke in China. The General Nice Group also benefited from her stewardship, winning notable accreditations such as “PRC’s Foreign Investment Enterprise of Double Excellence” and “Best Foreign Investment Enterprise in Tianjin”.

Welcoming Miss Cai on board, Mr Lau Yu, CEO of Abterra, said, “Miss Cai’s strong business acumen, along with her wide network of contacts in the resources industry, will prove invaluable in strengthening the Group’s position as a coking coal and coke trader. Her role as Strategic Business Director will also help Abterra open up new markets and business opportunities, which we hope will propel the Group’s business to greater heights.”
